CALIFORNIA SCIENCE
EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Exhibit at the California Science Education Conference, the state's premier gathering for K-16 science educators seeking hands-on learning, networking, and curriculum innovation. Hosted by California Association of Science Educators (CASE), the annual conference draws over 1,500 educators, curriculum leaders, and district decision makers from across the state, who are eager for new resources and partnerships.

WHY EXHIBIT

- Access to a focused audience of educators and school/district buyers
- Host hands-on workshops where your programs and products can be showcased in context
- Network and build partnership opportunities that generate leads and meaningful connections
- Future marketing opportunities with CASE beyond the scope of the conference
- Strong ROI through direct engagement, visibility, demos, and follow-up relationships

Where educators go for ideas, resources, and lasting partnerships.
